

ANOTHER YEAR

1. It's a New Year again, and what have I done.
Don't know of any new songs I've sung.
How have I helped someone?
Asked for forgiveness of someone I have wronged.
2. God is my help in every need.
He my hungry soul does feed.
He walks beside me, and guides my way.
Through every moment of the day.
3. I now am wise, I now am true.
Patient kind and loving, too.
All things I am, can do and be.
The flame that's Christ can burn in me.
4. God is my strength when I'm sick.
He is my rock, unfailing quick.
God is my all, I have no fear.
With God and love and truth are here.
5. So for this New Year let's try.
Please never ask ourselves why.
Just do what we can
To help our fellow man.
6. So my prayer for this New Year.
Just show how much we care.
A smile, a how are you today?
Those are things that always stay.

THE FORGOTTEN ONES

(Dedicated to all the Vietnam Vets, they are my Heroes)

1. As he sits in his wheelchair never asking anyone for a few cents.
I know he thinks, this is not fair.
Seeing to his needs, he hopes someone can attend.
2. He fought in this country's war;
but now he need a helping hand.
He went to lands unknown and far.
With his fellow soldiers he did band.
3. He will never be able to walk or live the life he left behind but for his cause, there is always talk.
No one wants to help, his life to find.
4. Look what his life has become.
Going nowhere, and no place.
Where have they all come from,
young men with dreams and grace.
5. Lord as I look at him today.
I ask myself, they have really needed our help.
They are heroes, what more can we say.
They bled and died, but never got any wealth.
